

Job Description

Researcher: Call for Artists

Part of our service to membership is to publicize “call to enter” opportunities outside of TAA. TAA’s newsletter Artline and website TAAVA.com will publicize these venues to members.

This position is year-round and involves research over the internet, national and local, tide water area galleries and museums for call for artists/entries that our members can participate in. The volunteer needs to have some skills with the internet and email abilities. The job can be done out of your studio or home. All the information needs to be collected once a month, starting in August and ending in June. It includes entries to art shows, exhibitions, art fairs, festivals, contests, and fine art competitions.

- I. Between the 10th and 15th of each month, the ‘call for enter’ needs to be emailed to the newsletter editor and webmaster.
- II. The content needs to be clear but brief. (When, what, where, how much, deadline and contact information). We (TAA) do not forward or link TAA prospectus without approval of the president. However, we can provide link to their website page where the prospectus is located.
- III. Sample of call for artists call:
"Projekt30's December Exhibition" call for entries (Posted: 10/2/07) -- Projekt30 announces an international call to artists for "Projekt30's December Exhibition", a publicly juried exhibition that will be displayed December 1 - 31, 2007 at Projekt30.com. Must be 18 or older, no 4D artwork. Entry fee: $35 for 10 images. Free for Projekt30 members. The prospectus is available online at <http://projekt30.com/prospectus.html>. Deadline: November 1, 2007. Questions? Please contact Justin Blische at admin@projekt30.com.
- IV. What to look for:
 - a. Preferably local events venue
 - b. East coast states like Virginia North, South Carolina, Maryland, and New York...
 - c. Web project should be entered only on our website (see above)
 - d. Complete information is given:
 - Name of the event
 - Deadline for submission (Submission dates)
 - Exhibition/event opening and duration.
 - Qualification: What is it...? Juried, non-juried, possible awards, what type of work.
 - Location and address of the exhibit
 - Contact information: name, phone number, email and website if available
- V. In case of questions on any call for entrance submission email the president.
